Viewing Products Online

Computer, phones, tablet and TV screens are not all calibrated the same. The display/representation of any board colour can drastically differ to what you may see in person, under different lighting conditions or to the final product. Paxwood Pty Ltd does not guarantee that our online colours will look the same across all digital devices and we will not be responsible if the finished installed product doesn't meet your colour requirements or expectations.

Australian Timber Species, European Engineered Oak and Bamboo are made from wood, not a manufactured imitation. Because wood is a natural material, every peice of hardwood flooring will have a unique appearance, with naturally occuring variations in colour, texture and grain pattern. Showroom samples and photographic reproductions can give an example of the product's appearance but they may not be representative of the full range of colour, texture and grain variations.

Any photo or image provided on this website is for a point of reference and to be used as a guide only and should not be used as the sole basis for choosing a particular style of flooring. Customers should view actual product samples before making a purchasing decision. Prior to installation of flooring especially timber floors customers should examine the product carefully to ensure it meets their expectations for appearance and quality. Flooring that has been installed will be deemed to ahve been inspected and accepted by the customer.

Please be aware that we have not necessarily checked photos against each flooring batch.
